

BUMPER GUARDIAN

From the Director's Seat

By Ed Rittenhouse

On behalf of the entire Pacific Northwest Region, I would like to thank Lou and Bob Gerrity for their fine work as editors of the club over the past few years. We have looked forward to receiving their interesting publication.

This past year has been a most successful and memorable one. We have seen our membership grow and have had very good attendance at all the regional events.

In fact, at the annual meeting in West Palm Beach, FL, our region was recognized with three awards:

1. Coon's Trophy: first place in recognition of overall regional performance;
2. Dietrich Trophy: second place in participation of annual meeting, and
3. Steiner Trophy: second place for participation in the Grand Classics.

Congratulations members!!!

The calendar of events found elsewhere in this publication lists the many outstanding activities to come. Please take time to note them on your calendar and attend as many as possible.

A highlight of 1990, of course, will be the summer CARavan to be hosted by our region in July.

The Board of Managers would appreciate hearing any and all suggestions or new ideas for events and tours. So bring your classic and bring a friend to the next meet.

February proves great time for indoor show in Bellevue

February in the northwest doesn't exactly lend itself to touring the countryside in your favorite classic car. "Four-wheeling" is more in order for the moist ground, chilly temps, and ever-prevalent overcast skies.

Car fanciers, however, did have a chance to see -- indoors -- in a unique setting, some of the most prized automobiles from our club.

A collection of foreign and domestic classics, plus a few special interest cars, were show cased in the Bellevue Place Wintergarden, Saturday, Feb. 10, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The show won rave reviews!

A steady crowd of people toured the Wintergarden throughout the day and many asked knowledgeable questions of CCCA owners. Interest was high, as 50 CCCA membership brochures were rapidly taken by spectators.

The impressive size of the crowd was a result of extensive publicity and advertising by Bellevue Place. Radio spots, newspaper and newsletter articles and pre-event display of Sig Linke's 1937 540K Mercedes generated excitement about the upcoming car show.

The classics were placed in the marble-tiled court of the Wintergarden Plaza and could be Bill Finefrock at Pebble Beach.

Finefrock new editor of Bumper Guardian

New editor/publisher of The Bumper Guardian is longtime automotive editor Bill Finefrock, who got "volunteered" for the job after his recent return to Washington state from the large state to the south.

Bill, who grew up in Port Angeles, almost returned to his roots, settling some 16 miles east at Sequim Bay, WA.

The new editor has had a long and varied career in automotive publishing. He was co-owner and editor/publisher of Competition Press (later Auto Week), had served as automotive editor of Pacific Stars and Stripes, editor of the 7th Division Bayonet newspaper, publisher of Sports Car, the monthly magazine of the Sports Car Club of America, and automotive columnist for the Chicago Daily News.

Finefrock has owned numerous publications, ranging from a daily newspaper to weeklies and monthlies. His most recent endeavor is co-publisher and editor of Collector Car News, the sale of which is currently being negotiated.

He also has organized the Reno, NV, swap meet since the Harrah organization quit operating the event a decade ago and also organizes the classic car marque display for the San Francisco International Automobile Show each November. The swap meet is now operated in conjunction with Reno's Hot August Nights event the first weekend of August each year.

Bill is a Cord and Cadillac nut, and owns a 1937 Cord Phaeton, a 40-year-old restoration (purchased from PNWR/CCCA's Tom Crook and Larry Justice), and a 1941 Cadillac 4-door convertible, just completing restoration, which he has had for 30 years.

Finefrock replaces Bob and Louise Gerrity, who decided it was time for more fishin' now that Bob has retired -- and less publishin'!

The new editor may be reached at (206) 681-0511 or by mail at 127 Bugge Rd. Sequim, WA 98382.

More on Bellevue

viewed from the upper level as well as the ground floor. Large palm trees and numerous planters filled with spring flowers enhanced the setting.

Retail shops and restaurants surround the area and offered a shopping opportunity for visitors to Bellevue Place. For CCCA members and guests, a private "Concours Club" provided antipasto, pizza, snacks, drinks and a place to sit down and rest as well as visit with other club members.

A special thank you to all the club members who so generously brought their cars and took time to prepare, haul and discuss their car's lore and legend with Wintergarden visitors. Cars were displayed by the following club members: Long, Reddaway, Cook, Linke, Goffette, McEwan, Diebel, Grisham, Martin, Raisbeck, McBride, Justice, Rittenhouse, Malone, Meden, Kane, Aker, Bomstead, Crook and Cochran.

The Wintergarden CCCA show was the second Adatto-Linke-Madden fund raiser project; last summer's Chandler's Cove show was the first. The PNR/CCCA treasury received $1,000 for the event; all costs, including food and drink for members and guests, were donated by Adatto Construction and Toy Care Ltd.

One of the advantages of being the editor is that one gets to run photos of one's favorite cars. I've already told SoCal Region's Walt Shearer I'd kill for this 1940 Packard Darrin 4 door convertible. First saw the car years ago when it belonged to Loren Tryon, who sold it to Jack Nethercutt for about $10,000 (told you it was a long time ago!). Nethercutt traded it to Tom Barrett and Shearer saw it on a transporter on its way to Barrett in Scottsdale, stopped the truck and bought it from Barrett over the phone. (Joel Prescott photo)

Mollie Crook

The car hobby lost a true first lady the first of the year. It will be difficult to attend a local event, a CARavan, or cross the fields of Hershey without seeing Mollie involved in the activities, giving a kind greeting to her numerous friends or expressing her opinion on the topic of the day.

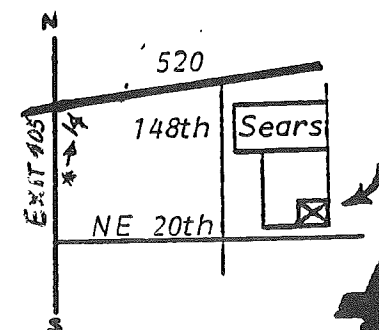

Mollie possessed the ability to make someone she had just met feel as though they had made a long-lasting friendship and this was evident by the numbers of flowers and the large numbers of people who attended her service.

Mollie's strength of character was evident as she fought her battle, confident to the end that she would prove the doctors wrong. Our sympathies are with her family, but we also share the loss of a friend that has been taken from us. (Carl Bomstead)

"If it ain't fun, we don't have it"

There was no lack of food and drink as the Pacific Northwest Region held its annual Christmas party at Tom Crook's elegant showroom in south Seattle. Besides lots of fun, the event netted a car load of toys for Toys for Tots. (Gerrity photos)

Region members celebrate yuletide at Tommy Crook's classy showroom

This year's Christmas event was an informal gathering at the Crooks' showroom in the Seattle area's south side. It was scheduled to follow another yule party by the Rolls-Royce Club and there were numerous Bentleys and Rolls that had made the trip after their gathering in the north end.

More than 100 members and guests attended the event and admired the numerous classics and special interest autos that Tom had in his showroom. If one was in the market for a car, he had a slim chance as most of the selection had already been purchased.

Decorating activities had previously been done as the club party was the sixth event the Crooks had hosted and previous groups had created a very festive atmosphere for the building.

The Dickens Carolers provided the entertainment as they strolled throughout the facility in their period costumes, singing our holiday favorites. The only thing missing was Bob Reverman joining in as he did last year.

Food was provided by those attending and inviting tables were set up both on the main floor and the balcony. If anyone left hungry, it was only because they were able to resist temptation.

The highlight of the event was the following day, however, when the gifts we had all brought were taken to the local Toy for Tots center. When called, they suggested that they just be left as a local drop off bin. After it was explained that the gifts filled the trunk, back seat and most of the front seat of my car, they quickly suggested other arrangements.

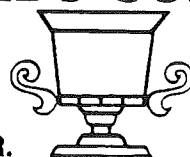

If the kids' excitement on Christmas day was equal to that of the volunteers when they helped unload the hundred-plus gifts, we can all share in the feeling that we made the holiday spirit a little brighter for some deserving youngsters. (Carl Bomstead)

J.M. GARDEN RESTORATIONS

Specializing in high quality refinishing. Partial and complete off-frame restorations of fine motorcars, foreign and domestic

January 1990)

Vintage, classic and specialty auto refinishing and body restoration facility opening in Thurston County, Washington.

My business has an emphasis on strong customer relations and encouraging the customer to check on the progress during the restoration process. Since 1970 I have handled the restoration of vintage, classic and specialty autos.

Prices will be quoted on refinishing and repair work only after inspecting your auto. The current shop labor rate is very reasonable.

Complete restorations are on a time and materials basis, and include a written estimate of all work to be performed, which gives the customer a clear approximation of total time and price.

On complete restorations a work order is written after every 40 hours, then authorized by the customer. Payments of statements for materials are due at the same time as statements for labor. (As materials on restorations are expensive, the materials are ordered per customer's job, and the receipts are kept in the customer's file for inspection.)

I enjoy the wonderful world of vintage, classic and specialty autos. It would be a pleasure to talk with you about your auto and restoration needs.

Transport service available.
