

Bumper Bolts

Year of the Tiger

Tuesday, February 1st marked a new year for just about half of the world and we are looking toward the tiger to scare off the last remnants of Covid-19, or at least transform the demic to an “en” rather than a “pan”.

As part of the effort to return to normal, our colleagues in the San Diego area are hosting a fabulous Grand Classic and the synopsis of events, costs, and contact information is attached for your convenience at the end of this issue of the Bumper Bolts.

While the events calendar is still in a state of flux, look at the calendar and the errata notes on the second page of this newsletter to get your automotive juices flowing. Following a successful Auction Week party hosted by Kim Pierce and Kristy Ryan in Arizona, the next up on March 26th will be a visit to the Griots Restoration Garage followed by a lunch and Alfa discussion at the LeMay Museum in the shadow of the Tacoma Dome. More events to come – stay tuned!

Events

- The timing for the visit to Griots' restoration facility had to be moved as the team there plans to attend the Amelia Island Concours. We have now set March 26th for this event and plan a catered lunch at the LeMay Museum (9:00 am at Griots Store if you want a donut; 10:00 am for the tour).
- We have a tentative date of May 14th for a revival of the Thunderdome Museum visit and a lunch at Mama Stortini's.
- July 17th is set for the Forest Grove Concours and a caravan is planned, much on back roads, to the event weekend. A little winetasting and 350 fun cars are expected for this Oregon weekend. Book the Best Western early!
- We are looking into a revival of Classics at Redmond Town Center, stay tuned.
- Tom Alberts extended an invitation for the PNR CCCA to exhibit at the Mercer Island Car Show. More information to come.

He who wins the Distance Award:

Mike Evans joined the Pacific Northwest Region and is pictured below, center left next to his son, Mark, Mark's wife Kate, and the star of the show, Mike's late wife Marian. Mark, although British, has the good sense to live in the French Riviera. Mike and Mark are planning to head across the pond to the Northwest in September.
